AM Science Session – Abstract Guidelines

Call for Abstracts · Submission deadline 15 January 2027

1 How to submit

Online via the form at rapidtech3d.com/am-science-session.html – or by e-mail to science@rapidtech3d.com with the abstract attached as PDF or Word file (file name: Surname_ShortTitle). Please include the details listed in section 2 in your e-mail.

2 Details of your contribution

Title	meaningful, max. 250 characters
Presentation	talk or poster (an abstract submitted for a talk may also be accepted as a poster)
Preferred journal	Progress in Additive Manufacturing (PIAM, more scientific) or RTe Journal (more application-oriented)
Language	German or English (full paper in English)
Presenting author	name, affiliation, e-mail, status (PhD candidate, student, researcher, industry)
Co-authors	name and affiliation
Keywords	3–5

3 The abstract

Max. 500 words, without figures and references. A proven structure:

1. Motivation and objective – which question or problem does the contribution address?
2. Approach – materials, processes, experiments, simulation, testing
3. Results – the key findings, preferably quantified
4. Novelty and significance – what is new compared with the state of the art, what does it mean for research and application?

4 Dates and publication

15 January 2027	abstract submission
1 February 2027	notification of acceptance
15 March 2027	full paper (max. 10 pages, English), double-blind peer review
31 May – 1 June 2027	Rapid.Tech 3D 2027 in Fulda

Accepted contributions are published in the special issue "Advancing Additive Manufacturing: Materials, Processes and Applications – Rapid.Tech 3D 2027" of Progress in Additive Manufacturing (Springer Nature) or in the RTe Journal. From 1 January 2027 PIAM is fully open access; an article processing charge (APC) applies unless covered by an open-access agreement of your institution (e.g. DEAL) or a waiver.

5 Attendance

We expect authors to attend in person in Fulda. Presenters receive the speaker ticket: €300 (salaried PhD candidates, postdocs, professors, industry), €100 for students; co-authors who do not present pay the regular ticket price. Each talk lasts 20 minutes, followed by 10 minutes of guided discussion.
